

NEW EGYPT WARRIORS

Welcome to the 2011 New Egypt Football, Dance and Cheer Season. We are extremely excited about this upcoming season and cannot wait to get all of the athletes onto the fields. However, we must go through all of the formalities first to ensure a safe, educational and fun season. There are several forms that MUST be filled out and a lot of information to go over prior to the start of the season. Below is an explanation of all the forms that MUST be handed into to your head coach no later than AUGUST 1 or your athlete will NOT be able to start until we have all documentation.

If your child is playing football please download the football information packet and if your child is doing dance or cheer please download the Dance/Cheer information packet.

Then you must also download:

The medical form

The Player Participant contract (if you have not already received a copy or download.)

Both of the above should be handed into your coach by AUGUST 1

The Football & Dance/Cheer Packets include the following:

Player Code of Conduct

Parent Code of Conduct

Members/Coaches code of Conduct

Adult Code of Conduct

Grievance Procedure 2011

The following are the last two pages of the packets that you need to print and SIGN

Media Consent Form (MUST BE SIGNED AND HANDED IN AT PARENT MEETING)

NEW EGYPT FOOTBALL, DANCE & CHEER
Football Players Code of Conduct

1. Be on time, fully suited and ready for practice at the designated time.
2. You must wear your jockstrap, cup and mouth piece to every practice and every game. Failure to wear any of these items will result in removal from the game by league officials.
3. Every day prepare yourself both mentally and physically for each and every practice. Stay focused on your responsibilities from start to finish.
4. No fighting, profane language, disrespect or negative gestures will be tolerated at any time.
5. Remember that you represent your parents, coaches, yourselves and your team. Be smart and use common sense.
6. Horse playing, talking back to coaches or parents will not be tolerated. It is recommended that you respect your fellow players, coaches and parents at all times without question.
7. Be disciplined and responsible on every occasion at school, at home and at practice. Be responsible and you will see the positive results for many years to come.
8. Poor academic performance and poor citizenship in school will result in suspension from games and practice until improvement is made and the standards have been met.
9. Cursing and bad language will not be tolerated or permitted in practice, games or at any Pop Warner function. Any violation will result in immediate suspension from games and practices.
10. We have a very positive and reputable football program with great coaching and administrative staff. We also have positive and supportive parents. Let's dedicate ourselves from start to finish, day-in day out-making the NEW EGYPT FOOTBALL, DANCE & CHEER Program the best in our league. With willing spirit and teamwork we can accomplish any goal.

A. Refreshments

1. Gum, Candy or Soda is not permitted at any practice.
2. Staying hydrated is a very important issue and should be treated seriously. All players should bring a water bottle to practice with them. Should your child have specific dietary needs, please discuss this with his/her coach.

C. Attendance

It is the responsibility of each individual participant to notify his or her football head coach when he/she will miss or be late for a practice or game. Notification will be done in the following manner.

Telephone the head coach a minimum of (2) two hours prior to a scheduled practice time.

Games require notification the night prior to a scheduled game. A detailed reason must be given why you are unable to attend.

The following is unacceptable notification methods:

Telling another team member, or leaving a message with any other parent to relay.

The following are unacceptable reasons for missing or being late for practice.

1. Social plans
2. Other sports obligations
3. Not “feeling” like it.
4. Not able to locate your equipment
5. Injury- you must show up for practice even though you will not be able to practice or play in the game. Once you are out for any injury, you will not be able to return to active practice or games until you have been cleared by a medical doctor-in writing.

The following are acceptable reasons for missing or being late for practice or game.

1. Illness
2. Injury-if verified by Doctor that you may not attend.
3. School activities-with prior arrangements/notification
4. Family obligations-with prior arrangements/notification.

No participant shall have personal friends attend practices with him/her. Should you bring a friend and that person interferes with the practice in any way, the participant would receive disciplinary action.

D. Manners/Rules of Conduct

Respect

All participants will remain QUIET when receiving instructions from any adult staff. The participant raising his/her hand and waiting to be identified will indicate questions. Participants will not be disruptive to other participants receiving instruction.

Failure to pay attention to instructions or discussions led by an adult staff member will be subject to the disciplinary process.

No abusive or foul language or obscene gestures will be tolerated at any Pop Warner function.

All adult staff members have full authority to have complete cooperation of each participant. Each adult staff member has the authority to enforce disciplinary process.

Confrontation

If any participant is experiencing any difficulties with another team member, you should report the problem to the head coach. If he/she cannot solve the problem, it should be reported to the Football President of Players and Coaches or the Football Commissioner. Should the problem remain unresolved, it should be reported to the Board of Directors.

Verbal confrontation. No participant will verbally berate or antagonize any other participant, whether they are from an opposing team of someone within their own team/city or league. Should there be an occurrence; a one-week suspension from the league will be immediate. A second offense would result in total suspension from the league program with full Board of Directors review prior to any re entry into the program for other seasons.

Physical confrontation (i.e. pushing shoving, hitting, etc) WILL NOT be tolerated for any reason. No participant or staff member shall physically accost or harm another participant or member in any way. Should there be an occurrence. Immediate suspension from the league will result. Re-entry into the program will require review by the Board of Directors.

E. Disciplinary Process

1. First Offense

The participant will be warned immediately and asked to cease whatever activity/ action he/she is engaging in.

2. Second offense

The participant has been previously warned regarding the offense. Parents will be advised of the offense. The participant will be benched for a period of time as decided by the head coach. Bench time will require the participant to attend all scheduled practices to observe training and activities from the bench. Should bench time include a schedule game, participant will dress for the game without pads or helmet and attend with his/her team, however observe the game from the bench.

3. Third Offense

One full week of suspension with further review of offense by the NEFDC Board of Directors. Player will not be permitted to attend any practice or game within the suspension time. Player may not attend any practice or game as a spectator. Failure to follow the suspension time, participant would be removed from the program.

4. Fourth offense

Participant will be suspended for the balance of the season with further review of the offense by the NEFDC Board of Directors. Approval from the Board of Directors will be required for the participant to re enter the league program in future seasons.

Should any participant be suspended for the balance of the season, all equipment will be returned within (10) ten days or forfeiture of all bonds will apply.

F. Transportation

1. Transportation to and from practices and games or any Pop Warner function is the responsibility of the participant.
2. Review practice schedule with head coach for changes in scheduling. All participants should be picked up immediate upon completion of practice. A baby-sitting fee of $5.00 for every 5 minutes will apply when you are late.

Please note all coaches and staff volunteer their time and have families and obligations of their own, it is not their responsibility to take care of your child after practices.

NEW EGYPT FOOTBALL, DANCE & CHEER
Grievance Procedure - 2011

Any parent/guardian with a child(ren) participating within the New Egypt Warrior Pop Warner Football, Dance & Cheer program should follow this grievance procedure. This grievance procedure is designed to provide parent/guardian with prompt response to their concern. If you have a grievance, please follow the steps listed.

1. Discuss the concern with your child and if possible, observe the situation yourself. Be certain you have all the facts correct.
2. Discuss the concern with the Head Coach after practice or the game. Never discuss the concern with other participants present. (If the concern is regarding the head coach, please follow the chain of command which is listed below.)

After speaking with the head coach and if you are not satisfied that the concern has been resolved with above steps then:

3. Discuss the concern or grievance with the President of players and coaches or Cheer/Dance Coordinator. They will document your concern and will review your concern with the full board of directors. If the problem involves a board member as a coach, then they will be removed from the meeting until a resolution is clarified. Once a resolution is set, it will be explained to the parent and the coach.

If you are not satisfied that the concern has been resolved at that time:

4. Forward a written letter or email to the New Egypt Warrior Pop Warner Football, Dance & Cheer Board of Directors and request a meeting with the complete Board of Directors. The correspondence should contain all facts and listing the individuals to whom you have spoken about the concern or grievance. A meeting will be scheduled at a time mutually convenient for all parties.

This is the final step in the process and all efforts will be made to amicably resolve any concern. New Egypt Pop Warner Football, Dance & Cheer Board of Directors follow the league by-laws, as well as those of Burlington County and Eastern Region Pop Warner.

Chain of Command:

Football President Players/Coaches - Bob Kudrick
Football Commissioner – Joe Surdo

For Cheer or Dance Contact:

Dance and Cheer Coordinator – Shelly Peroni
Dance and Cheer Commissioner – Jen Kasoff

 Please allow the process time to work before elevating your concern. Our Board of Directors consists of volunteers and parents.
